

Clackamas County Tourism Development Grant Workshops

This grant program is part of Clackamas County Tourism's mission to assist our local communities and organizations through effective tourism asset development. $250,000 is available for Development Grants in FY19/20. Minimum award is $5,000. The Tourism Development Council may award up to $250,000 for a project.

Please join CCTCA for one of the following free Development Grant Orientation Workshops. Any person, organization or business considering an application is required to attend a workshop. (If your organizations grant writer attended a previous Development Grant Orientation workshop, attendance is encouraged but not required). This workshop will help familiarize you and/or your organization with the application process for a 2019-20 Tourism Development Grant and include a review of grant proposal guidelines, expectations and suggestions for how to create a persuasive proposal.
