Getting Visitor Attention In The Modern Age

How does your website fit into today's fast changing world?

Multichannel

All channels available to the consumer... ... but not themselves integrated.

Omnichannel

All channels available to the consumer... ... and are connected.

The digital age marks the most substantial shift in the field of marketing we've ever seen. We have instant access to more people than ever. We have more information to sift through than we know what to do with. And new tools and techniques allow us to predict buying patterns and customer needs like never before. - DAVID PEREIRA, CREATIVE Authority? Why does that matter?

Position 0

"Why is zero the new hero? Featured Snippets rank above traditional organic results in what we call position #0. Including a title and link, they drive real, organic clicks. If you rank on page one (especially in the top five), getting a Featured Snippet may be easier than competing for the #1 position, which would take a lot of money, a lot of links, and a lot of authority. You could get from #5 to #0 simply by being a better answer."

Goal

Don't do anything digital haphazardly.

Take the Time

Dedicate just a few hours a week to digital efforts.

Think

Walking in the visitor's shoes.
What questions do you think they may have?

Be good at few things rather than being "meh" at many things.

Thanks!
